

FUEL for the Fire

Alice Lightbourne

ALICE LIGHTBOURNE LIVES THE “MORE THAN YOU IMAGINED” LIFE!

Alice Lightbourne has an unquenchable passion for seeing women live a more than imagined life - a life on fire both personally and professionally! This dynamic woman desires to bring about life transformation and enrich the lives of women through her unique style.

Alice is a skillful, authentic, teacher, coach, and influencer, who empowers the women she connects with into action. She holds a Bachelor of Science degree (concentration in International Business), a Master of Business Administration (MBA) and is a Licensed Path Leader Coach. Alice and her team can provide you with both innovative and creative tools on leadership, mentorship, coaching and training. She has taught seminars focusing on leadership and is active in the community serving on various committee's and boards.

Alice can will help the women in your organization realize their innate potential within their personal lives, family relationships, communities, and career. Having over a 20-year career within the asset management industry, leading many individuals to align with corporate vision and objectives has prepared her to be the proficient leader, visionary, business strategist that energizes lasting change.

Her corporate and ministry endeavor, Fuel 4 the Fire, is a solution-driven entity that provides the motivation, creative tools, and innovative strategies to assist women in discovering and activating the change necessary to live the purposeful lives they only imagined.

Alice's life-changing experiences and corporate journey has fueled her maturation and commitment to be used as an ambassador and change agent in every area of influence she is called.

